

The following is a list of citations that are to be used on the copyright page of your book indicating which Bible versions you have used. Normally this is the third page (the first two pages are blank, then page three is the title page and page four is the copyright page).

Please note that the directions are listed first and then the actual citation of the different Bible versions. Once your book is complete, please make sure to double-check your scriptures and decide which version is the primary version. Do not use any acronym for that version in your book. This statement at the beginning is sufficient. Your primary version should be listed first on the copyright page. Then all the other versions should be listed.

If you have any questions email us at info@deeperrevelationbooks.org.
