Concerning Mike Shreve's Book, In Search of the True Light

Jerry Newcombe—Senior Producer of Coral Ridge Ministries-TV

"I had the privilege of interviewing Mike Shreve recently on the radio about his change from being a yoga teacher to a born again follower of Jesus Christ. I found his testimony fascinating, and he was very articulate and balanced in explaining his perspective on Christians and yoga. Furthermore, his book doesn't attack those who are lost or in bondage. It builds bridges of friendship in order to explain how Jesus Christ truly is the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

Denny Brownlee—Co-host of the Morning Show on The Family Life Network

"Thanks so much for sharing with our listening audience your story and the dangers of yoga. So much of what you have in your past is fascinating--and dangerous. The church needs to know it--and you say it well. On behalf of John Owens and myself, thanks for taking time to share with our audience. Your message is a much needed wake-up call. May God continue to bless your ministry."

Chuck Borsellino Ph.D., Psy. D.—Host, "At Home Live," Family Net TV

"Anyone can take the topic of world religions and make it complicated...but Mike took us from confusing to conversant in only 20 minutes."

Marvin Sanders—American Family Radio Network

*"No one understands the dangers of New Age thinking better than Mike Shreve, and he is able to communicate that on the level of his hearer or reader, from the child to the philosophy professor. It is a rare gift. Our interview with Mike was one of our best programs. I highly recommend his book, In Search of the True Light, especially to those who are searching and those who are ministering to the searchers."*

Father Michael Manning, SVD—The Word in the World, TBN

Paul Willoughby—Nite Lite Live, Nationwide Canadian Telecast / Crossroads Network

"Mike shared in a powerful way his divine encounter with Jesus Christ that took him from Kundalini teacher to follower of Christ. His passion for the Lord and compassion for others was evident as he interacted with caller after caller. I highly recommend Mike's ministry, especially to those from a non-Christian background. He has a winning approach..."

Concerning Mike Shreve's Book, In Search of the True Light

Bob Dutko—Host of The Bob Dutko Show—Radio

"Mike was an exceptional interview. His knowledge about his subject matter and easy conversational style made him a great guest. There's nothing more frustrating than interviewing authors who don't know their material, are not engaging or just plain boring, so I really appreciate when people like Mike come on the show. I would highly recommend Mike for any media interviews and I look forward to having on my show in the future."

Kerby Anderson—Point of View Radio Program

"In Search of the True Light provides an in-depth look at the major questions addressed by the major religions and provides a clear presentation of the Christian message. This is a great book to give to a non-Christian searching for truth."

Rhonda Glenn—100 Huntley Street, Co-Host

"Thoughtful and thought-provoking, Mike Shreve provides a unique insight into the essential question all spiritual seekers must ask - do all religions lead to God? Interwoven with his own compelling personal story and a comprehensive look at more than twenty world religions, he provides a cogent answer to this difficult question. A good resource for anyone who is searching for spiritual meaning and purpose."

"Mike Shreve is one of the most dynamic voices in America today. He has committed his life to seeing souls saved, feeding the hungry and reaching the needy. In Search Of The True Light is a classic. Mike's testimony will touch your heart and his insights into the religions of the world are very enlightening. I have not been able to put down this book."

Dr. Gerald Derstine—Founder and Director, Gospel Crusades, Inc.

"I know of no other minister who is more capable of expounding the Scriptures theologically than Mike Shreve. His knowledge of the Eastern religions and...world religions will enlighten you..."

C. Peter Wagner—Noted Author, Educator and Director of the International Coalition of Apostles

"I agree that the True Light books need very wide circulation...You've done an incredible research project and I congratulate you for it!"

Dr. Richard Jones—Professor of Anthropology and Intercultural Studies, Lee University, Cleveland, TN

"Very few comparative works written about world religions ever get beyond the most superficial surface characteristics of those belief systems. Mike Shreve, however, offers a much needed and detailed approach to understanding the mind and heart of people who follow the world's various religions. He honestly and accurately discusses those areas in which the world's religions agree and those areas in which they disagree. He intelligently guides the reader through his own search for Truth and encourages and challenges us to do the same. I will be recommending this book to all my anthropology and intercultural studies students in order to aid them in their own searches for the Truth, and to help them gain a better understanding of world religions."

Concerning Mike Shreve's testimony and his book, In Search of the True Light

Ian Bond, D. Min—Executive Director / Dean, Beacon School of Ministry, Columbus, GA

*“There are many excellent books available on comparative religion, but Mike Shreve’s new offering, In Search of the True Light, is worthy of special attention. The research is thorough, the text is lucid and engaging, a wealth of information is presented, the endnotes are detailed, and the bibliography is comprehensive. Mike’s approach is not to criticize or condemn alternative worldviews and beliefs systems, but with clarity and compassion he shows the weaknesses and flaws in each of the systems studied. Then in each case he lovingly yet firmly points to the Bible and Jesus Christ as the true source of light. This is destined to become a standard text for pastors, Bible students, and laymen for many years to come.”*

Vail Carruth—“Authentic Enlightenment” Author, former teacher of Transcendental Meditation before her conversion experience.

“Both my husband and I were so blessed by your book. We were impressed at the anointed, compassionate, and informed way it is written -- and we think of it as a great resource and witnessing tool. It is one of the finest books I have seen on New Age apologetics, and a welcome relief from a lot of what's out there. Seen from the inside, the Lord has given you a unique perspective, and your love and understanding are very evident. The sincere seeker will not be put off by your book. In fact, your book leaves them without any excuse!”

Bruce Bartel—Chairman, Lighthouse Christian Stores and former Board member of the Christian Booksellers Association (CBA)

“This book is valuable for two unique reasons: it gives the most important and useful information about eleven major religions in the world with which Christians should be familiar in these days of global change, and it also treats these religions and those who believe in them with respect and dignity so that you can give this book to friends to read in a spirit of love.”

Brian Peterson—Charisma Magazine

“Our Glorious Inheritance by Mike Shreve contains 'hidden treasure' about our inheritance as children of God. Shreve discovers... Biblical titles that reveal our rank in the universal plan of God: the apple of God's Eye, His beloved, His elect, His stewards, and so on. This book gives rich insight on God's attitude toward His Children.”

Marilyn Hickey

“This book is excellent. I have already read it cover to cover.”
